3 Day Musical Theater Workshops

Dance! Sing! Act!

During SDS's Musical Theater Workshop, students aged 8+ will spend three days gaining confidence, strength and technique in their vocals and movement with special focus on sharing a story with their talents. All in a supportive environment that will both encourage and challenge students to explore their natural abilities. In addition to honing these skills, students will learn and prepare for a mini performance-utilizing all three art forms-that they will bring to life at the end of the week.

July 28, 30 & 31

* Aug 1, 12-1:30pm Mini Performance for both MT1 and MT 2
(rehearsal is at 12:00, show starts at 1:00pm)

2 Day Choreography with Purpose Workshops

A dance is meant to speak. To have something to say. It could tell a story, express and emotion, and could be powerful enough to change a heart. Your message might be totally different than mine and that is a great thing. Our creator loves diversity. In this class we will begin with the purpose of our movement and build the movement into a piece that has a message to convey. We will take a quick look into history to study different approaches and techniques in choreography.

2 Day Dance as Worship Workshops

As dancers we tend to get caught up in the mirror as we dance. We worry about what we look like to others and we often feel insecure in our movement. How can we worship with all of these thoughts running around in our head? This class will involve focusing our heart and mind on Christ and allowing our movement to become our communication with God and each other. It will involve stretching, prayer and movement exercises to help us shift our attention away from ourselves and on Christ. We will combine choreography with improvisation with the end goal of simply connecting with God.
